Crl. R. P. No.2467/2007

.....

Dated: 25.6.2007

O R D E R

In this Revision filed under Section 397 read with Sec. 401 Cr.P.C. the petitioner who was the accused in C.C. No.465/2005 on the file of the J.F.C.M-I, Kottayam, challenges the conviction entered and the sentence passed against him for an offence punishable under Sec. 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act').

2. I heard the learned counsel for the Revision Petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the Revision Petitioner re-iterated the contentions in support of the Revision. The courts below have concurrently held that the cheque in question was drawn by the appellant in favour of the complainant on the drawee bank, that the cheque was validly presented to the bank, that it was dishonoured for reasons which fall under Section 138 of the Act, that the complainant made a demand for payment by a notice in time in accordance with clause (b) of the proviso to Section 138 of the Act and that the Revision Petitioner/accused failed to make the payment within 15 days of receipt of the statutory notice. The said finding has been recorded on an appreciation of the oral and documentary evidence. I do not find any error, illegality or impropriety in the finding so recorded concurrently by the courts below. The conviction was thus rightly entered against the petitioner.

4. What now survives for consideration is the question as to whether a proper sentence has been imposed on the Revision Petitioner. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, I am inclined to modify the sentence imposed on the revision petitioner. Accordingly, if the revision petitioner pays to the first respondent, complainant, a sum of Rupees Forty Thousand by way of compensation under Section 357(3) Cr.P.C within three months from today, he need undergo only imprisonment till the rising of the Court. If the revision petitioner commits default in making the payment as aforesaid, the sentence imposed on him by the Courts below shall revive.

5. The amounts, if any, deposited by the revision petitioner during the pendecy of the appeal before the Lower Appellate court shall be re-funded to him.

This Revision is disposed of confirming the conviction but modifying the sentence as above.

V.RAMKUMAR,
JUDGE
